Eastside Community Ministry is seeking a part-time Youth Worker to lead activities for children after school and during summer breaks. The program helps low-income and at-risk youth in a Christian environment. The employee must serve as a mentor and role model for youth, and promote an atmosphere where children can learn and develop.

Working conditions are similar to a school environment, with occasional exposure to inclement weather conditions when supervising outdoor activities and field trips. The position requires knowledge of general office and multi-media equipment, and skill in crafts, and children's activities. The employee's duties include lifting of items of varying weights and operation of household appliances. Employee should have a valid Driver's License and be comfortable driving a 15-passenger van.

ECM desires an applicant with a high school diploma or equivalent, and with experience in youth instruction. The applicant must be willing to exhibit flexibility in work schedule and job tasks, and reflect Christian concern, honesty, and good character.

Interested applicants may apply at www.eastsideministry.org or stop by Eastside Community Ministry, 221 Stillwell Street: Monday – Thursday 9am – Noon & 1pm – 3pm to apply. Resumes are requested.
